11. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Spoke with Ed Gleiman, staffer the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, to see if I could get an advance copy of H.R. 13364, the newly introduced "Presidential Papers" bill. Mr. Gleiman said that the bills are due from the printers tomorrow. Mr. Gleiman said that the bill should provide CIA adequate protection in that it allows the President to withhold properly classified documents or documents protected from disclosure by statute for ten years; after ten years, provisions of FOIA including exemptions will attach.

12. [REDACTED] LIAISON Eileen Katz, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence secretary, called to ask about the status of the provision of the Operating Directives and supplemental covering sheets that Jim Bush, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, had requested the preceding week. I told her that it was my understanding that they would be provided to Mr. Bush during his 6 July meeting with Don Gregg, PCS/LOC.

✓ 13. [REDACTED] LIAISON Jeanne McNally, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence secretary, called to ask about the status of the provision of legislation on espionage laws that [REDACTED] Acting Deputy Legislative Counsel, had promised to Mike O'Neil, Chief Counsel, of the Committee. I told her that it was my understanding that they were being pulled together and would be sent over to Mr. O'Neil tomorrow.
